CLASS PROPHECY

One of the ole stand-bys of P.H.S. Judy Schultz, better known to us as "Schultzie" after graduation ten years previous decided to take a ride through her former home-town and try to locate some of her former classmates. Peeling into town in her little red car that still clashes with her red hair, she suddenly comes to a screeching halt in front of a building with a huge red and white sign reading PARKERSBURG TIMES, Publisher--Maggie (Kaaren) Munson. Here she stops for a little gab fest. As she's coming out she meets Phyllis Escher who is going to put an ad in the paper reading - - - Stop Huntion, Solve Your parking problems, Park at P & G's Parking Lot, Privacy Assured.

As she leaves the famous newspaper and continues on her way around town she rides past the Craig Knepe residence. Here she sees the 10 little Knepe boys, averaging 6' 1". The five sets of twins makes daddy's own basketball team.

As she admires the Knepe future All Staters she is swept off her feet by an ambulance driven by Don Hulsing with the patient Leonard (Sup) Abkes who was just dying for a ride so he fell off the watertower while painting it. She follows the ambulance to the hospital where he was rushed to surgery under the direction of Drs. Janssen and Reiners. After hearing the report of the doctors, "He broke his--but he's all right!" she headed back to town. Wonder if Leonard will fall in love with his nurse. Who is it? Caroline Luppen.

As she arrives back in town she sees the Hempen-Rasmussen bus and decides to follow it. As it arrives at the school she sees Vera Aswegan going in to teach the brats. Her trip is continued past the high school where she sees Ardith Schuck drilling the band to her arrangement of the cha-cha-cha.

Pulling down Third Street, formerly known as Main Street, she recognizes all the former business places now taken over by some of her classmates. Being different Schultz comes up the wrong way. The first place she passes is the Truax Hatchery. It seems he bought this to match his personality. Across the street is "Tim's Used Car Lot." Roger's wish finally came true--now he can drive a different car every day. Next she passes "Willy's Groceries." Jim must have revolted. Besides it is the 1 & 2 Cent Store. Darlene and Chuck must have forced Schuck's Variety to retire. She glances across the street and sees "Joe's Cleaners." In the window is his motto, "We clean it or make it worse." Next to it is Denny Hagen's "Barber Shop." Back across the street is Bobby's Bank. Looks like Bob has enlarged his piggy bank. Glancing back she sees Jerry's Drug Store and decides to come back later. Because she was so interested in Bobby's Bank she almost goes past "Tiny's Gas Station." She is brought up short by the sputtering of her car which warns her she's out of gas. She sputters into the station and to her amazement finds it is now run by one of her classmates, Roger Seehusen. As her car is being refilled she glances across the street and sees Winko Co. A Cadillac comes to a screeching stop in front of it and Schultz recognizes Keith Cuvelier entering his fiberglass company. He finally got his fortune by marrying into it. From Rog she learned that Jim Etjen has started a new company down the street. He didn't know which to sell, Carnation or Bordens, so he started a new plant called "Bornation." She thinks about stopping but sees Jim is busy so she continues her journey past Wayside. There she sees Kay looking out the window for any possible prospects. Maybe some day the right one will come along. She decides to go on a joyride through the country. What's this? The Ronald Brouwer farm and with all red machinery. Wonder if he gets a discount? After her joyride Schultz decides to come back and take in Jerry's Drug Store. Whoops! She almost bumps into a walking grocery store. Underneath the heap she finds Kathy. Wonder if she bought Jim out? Schultz heads into the Drug Store where she meets the former Sally Simons. When she stops and talks she finds Sally is moving around the country with her natural gas man, raising little oil wells. On into the drug store for a movie magazine she finds an article called "New Drummer for Lawrence Welk." She reads it and finds the new drummer is Kenny Thorne. Well, Kenn's talent really paid off. As she continues on through the magazine she runs across her favorite article by Luella Parson. To her surprise Luella has retired and Joyce has taken over to become the biggest gossip in Hollywood.

Now that Schultz has found all her classmates she is ready to take off to the moon with Bobby Andreeson for their honeymoon.

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1961, being physically fit and mentally sound, do make our last will and testament on April 28, 1961.

- I, Dennis Hagen, will my 1949 Chevie to Ronny Hoogestraat, who already has a collection of old cars.
- I, Joel Janssen, will my ability to blush, to Roy Hassman, and hope that his neck doesn't get as red as mine.
- We, Kathy Uhlenhopp and Darlene Voy, will our matrimonial intentions to Esther Spree, who we know will approve of them.
- I, Judy Schultz, will my ability to cut up as "Tilly" and other wise, to Janelle Bronsema, who does her own share of cutting up.
- I, Kay Eilers, will my ability to become acquainted with those living north of town, to Rue Nicklaus, who has her eye on Allison.
- I, Phyllis Escher, will my gas station attendant to no one, because he is working to pay for future expenses.
- I, Judy Asche, will my ability to become engaged before my senior year, to Sharlene Harken, who already has a good start.
- I, Joe Hammar, will my ability to make wise remarks at the wrong time, to any one else who doesn't know any better.
- I, Sally Simon, will my ability to write letters to boys during school time, to Diane Schuck, who already has a good start by writing notes.
- I, Joyce Krull, will my ability to have fun in government class without being caught, to Karen Buss, Linda Griffiths, and Janice Huntley, and hope they have as much fun as I did.
- I, Leonard Abkes, will my old paint car to Linda Kadous, and hope it will help her paint the town.
- I, Jerry Anderson, will my ability to eat, play hookey, and lose points to anyone in the Junior class who will try to match it.
- I, Evelyn Bietelmann, will my sleepless nights to Marcia Johnson, whose heart throbs for a Grundy Center romeo.
- I, Don Hulsing, will my seat in the ninth row in study hall by the windows, to Benny Buss and Larry Brookman, and hope they will enjoy the view as much as I did.
- I, Kaaren Munson, will my Einstein thinking ability to Kenny Jackson, in hopes it will help him in Physics.
- I, Kendall Truax, will my ability to ask stupid questions to John Lindamen, who may be edging me out.
- I, Kenny Thorne, will my sensitive ribe to Carol Tjpkes, but hope she doesn't let the boys know that she's ticklish.
- I, Vera Aswegan, will my sweet smile to Sally Miller, who already has one of her own.
- I, Jim Etjen, will my innocent looks and deviltry to Esther Luhning, who already has tricks of her own.
- I, Ardith Schuck, will my infectious giggle to Marlys Johnson, in hopes she will liven things up a little around here next year.
- I, Carol Reiners, will my quiet and studious manner to Judy Johnson, in hopes she will put them to good use.
- I, Craig Knepe, will my daddy-long legs to Marvin Jungling, in hopes it will enable him to look over the steering wheel of his 1950 Ford.
- I, Roger Seehusen, will my broad shoulders to Gary Galpin.
- I, Roger Timmer, will all the rubber I laid on main street, to Darrell Williams and Ralph Junker, who have each gone through two sets of tires.
- I, Bob Neymeyer, will my go-getum techniques toward girls of neighboring towns, to Kenny Knock, who already has interests of his own.
- I, Jim Wildeboer, will my interests at Strawberry Point, to Jack Eddy, in hopes a girl will liven up his night life.
- I, Keith Cuvelier, will the pleasure of being engaged during my senior year, to Lee Schwerdtfeger who also has interests in Aplington.
- I, Ronny Brouwer, will all my FFA trophies to Joe Wallbaum, so he can spend his time polishing them.

We, the Senior Class, as a whole, will all our memories and experiences in the halls of P.H.S. to the Junior Class, in hopes they will enjoy them as much as we did.

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the Senior Class of 1961

Max Morrison

Max, our superintendent, is the busiest man around P.H.S. As he hurries to meetings and conferences he can always be counted on to stop and talk. But, you had better watch out . . . he is also well known for his witty remarks. This year he taught sociology in addition to his regular duties.

Mr. Van Eschen

Well known around P.H.S. is our principal, Mr. Van Eschen. As a friend or a principal he can't be beat in the opinion of most of the students. He holds meetings, makes announcements, coaches girls' basketball and frowns upon "bad" boys. There's always work to be done and he doesn't mind doing it.

Mrs. Williamson

Her laugh and smile are familiar, give her a typewriter, a telephone, and a problem; she's content! Let the office become noisy and she's very disturbed. Being the office secretary means real work, and there's plenty that she does in the P.H.S. office.

Board of Education

Mr. Bender

Look out for that car! It contains a P.H.S. Drivers Education student. Under the training of Mr. Bender, many students have learned the correct habits of driving. He also coaches boys' basketball and gives assistance to the Pep Club.

Mr. Cosner

As the 8:30 bell rings, you see students flocking into the bandroom with their coats on in a desperate attempt to please the instructor, Mr. Cosner. Under his directions the band has given many splendid performances such as; Spring Concert, Marching Band and Summer Band Concert.

Mrs. Evans

Mrs. Evans has brought the sweet voice of Rome to our ivy clad walls, while acquiring gray hairs putting up with the Latin Club parties. Mrs. Evans, besides being our school librarian, also teaches math, algebra and geometry.

Mr. Fritz

Driving past the football field during the fall you will see Mr. Fritz, P.H.S. football coach, preparing the field for the seasons victories. Besides coaching he also teaches General Math and Bookkeeping.

Mr. Lane

Who said Ag was a snap course?? I'm sure the Ag boys will tell you differently now. Under the capable direction of Mr. Lane, Ag at P.H.S. has prospered. This goes to show that anyone with leadership can "tame the lions roar."

Mrs. Michaelson

She does everything from friendly "good mornings" to high drama in the gym. Under her direction, the Junior and Senior Class Plays were a success. She also knows her fair share of English.

Mr. Ostrander

Does the map in the background look familiar Mr. Ostrander? If you have any questions concerning the civil war period just ask this man for the answer. Office Practice, Typing, and American History are among his specialties. He also aids the annual staff with their many problems.

Mrs. Ostrander

If the way to a man's heart is really through his stomach then meet the Ann Pillsbury and Betty Crocker of P.H.S. Mrs. Ostrander is responsible for those heavenly odors which float through the halls.

Mr. Owens

When students aren't racking their brain for one of his tests, they're probably dissecting a frog, blowing fuses in the lab or perhaps even laughing at one of his corny jokes. Also if you have any problems he is willing to help in any manner possible.

MR. O. B. COOK

We, the senior class, wish to give great distinction to a well known citizen of our town, Mr. O. B. Cook. For many years, he has regularly attended all sports activities; football, both girls and boys basketball, and has often been seen on the golf course. Mr. Cook's interest in us has been greatly appreciated throughout the years. His friendliness and faithfulness will be difficult to equal and will long be remembered.

1960-61 GIRLS' BASKETBALL SEASON

Of the seventeen girls reporting for the first basketball practice, only three were letter winners from the previous year. They were Carol Tjepkes, Janelle Bronsema and Joyce Krull, all forwards. The entire guard court had been lost through graduation. A newcomer from Des Moines, Kaaren Munson, and six tall, promising freshman candidates brightened the prospects for the Crusaderettes, however.

As the season approached the often asked question of "How good would the Crusaderettes be?" was answered when they exploded against Dike in the opener. After that Parkersburg defeated every school in the conference at home and away with the exception of Clarksville. The climax of the season came at New Hartford, when the Crusaderettes reached a sharp edge that they were never again to find and came from behind to unseat the conference champions.

This was a basketball team that created intense interest as evidenced by the fact that huge crowds filled the gym for every home game and set a school attendance record.

Janelle Bronsema led all scores in the conference, scoring 720 points and averaging 36 points a game. She was selected on the all-conference first team and received honorable mention from the IDPA. Betty Asche and Janelle both received honorable mention on Brad Wilson's selections.

Seniors Keith Cuvelier, Jim Etjen, who alternated with his sophomore brother Craig, Craig Knepe and Jim Wildeboer along with junior Kenny Knock were the starters throughout the season. Lee Schwerdtfeger was the top reserve.

Craig Knepe was named to the All-Conference first team and defensive ace Keith Cuvelier was named to the second team. Craig was also honored by the Iowa Daily Press Association and the Des Moines Register and Tribune by being named to the All-State teams.

We're Bushed!!!!

When the books close, and the last bell rings,
And carefree days are lost to mundane things-
When nostalgia strikes, and your memory
wan-
And you remember the faces but not the names-
Pick up your yearbook and leaf it through,
And remember the days so dear to you.
